IX. DENIAL AND APPEAL

- A. The Wide Ruins Chapter recognizes that the general public should be provided a means to access records and information relating to the operation of its government while preserving the privacy interests of individuals and entities. Therefore, the Wide Ruins Chapter will deny access to information in the record if the information is exempt from disclosure to the requestor, issuing a notice of denial as provided in 2 N.N.C. § 89 of the Navajo Nation Privacy Act.

- B. If the request for protected records is denied, in whole or in part, the Wide Ruins Chapter Manager shall provide a notice of denial to the requestor either in person or by sending the written notice to the requester's address.
- C. The notice of denial shall contain the following information:
  - 1. A description of the record or portions of the record to which access was denied, provided that the description does not disclose the contents of the protected record(s) or information.
  - 2. Any court rule or order, state or federal statute or regulation that exempts the record or portions of the record from disclosure, provided that the citation does not disclose protected information.
  - 3. A statement that the requester has the right to make application to the Navajo Nation District Court for an order releasing the record and the time limits for filing the application.
  - 4. Unless otherwise required by a court of competent jurisdiction, the Wide Ruins Chapter may not destroy or give up custody of any records to which access was denied until the period for a court appeal has expired, or the end of the appeal process.
- D. In the event the Wide Ruins Chapter determines that the requested record is protected from disclosure, or fails to respond to the request within ninety (90) days period, the requesting individual may submit application to the Navajo Nation District Court, as defined in 7 N.N.C. § 253, in accordance with the proper processes of the Court for an order compelling the release of the record.
  - 1. This application must meet the notice and filing requirements of the Navajo Nation Sovereign Immunity Act, 1 N.N.C. § 551 et. seq.
  - 2. Any person who may have an interest in maintaining the confidentiality of the record may appear and demonstrate the need for maintaining the confidentiality of such records.
  - 3. Wide Ruins Chapter shall provide reasons for the denial.

X. PROTECTION AND BACKUP OF PUBLIC AND PROTECTED RECORDS

- A. All essential, useful, important records shall be preserved by a backup document or on an electronic memory storage device in case of damage or accidental loss. It shall be the responsibility of the Administrative Assistant to perform backup procedures on a bi-weekly basis, and the Wide Ruins Chapter Manager will authorize access to the backup system if needed.

- B. The backup schedule shall be documented on the backup log and updated upon any backups. The following records require back-ups: financial statements, resolutions, meeting minutes, payroll property inventories, and any other essential records.
- C. All Wide Ruins Chapter records (except backups stored on an electronic storage memory device) should be stored, maintained and safeguarded on the Wide Ruins Chapter's premise. There should be adequate storage protection of all Wide Ruins Chapter records.
- D. The following methods shall be used for backup and protection:
  - 1. A separate and secure location shall be used for records stored on flash disks.
  - 2. Future records shall be photocopied and stored at a separate, secured location.
